CRIMINAL LAW UPDATE

SPRING 2012

EXCLUSIVE - THE ONLY FULL DAY
EXTERNAL COURSE BEING GIVEN
by ANTHONY EDWARDS

This course is part of a rolling programme enabling criminal law solicitors to keep up to date with developments in the law. The material is revised and re-written every 6 months and covers all aspects of the criminal process from investigation to final review. It includes examination of all developments in legal aid and costs, criminal investigations, criminal law, procedure, evidence and sentencing. This edition covers developments from October 2011.

A review of all relevant case law will be included.

Subjects covered include:

- Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act and timetable for introduction
- Professional Duties under the 'Don't delay justice' initiative
- CPS digitalisation project
- Developments in violent and sexual crime
- Continuing changes to the Criminal Procedure Rules
- Sentencing guidelines
- Funding developments: a major review of legal aid in criminal cases following collapse of BVT

ANTHONY EDWARDS is a duty solicitor and Senior Partner of TV Edwards LLP, London. He is a Member of the Council of Justice and of the Editorial Board of the Criminal Law Review. He is the author of "Advising a Suspect in the Police Station" (Sweet and Maxwell); "Criminal Defence: a Guide to Good Practice" (with Roger Ede); "Sentencing Handbook" (with Joanne Savage) and "Fixed Fees in the Criminal Courts" (all Law Society)

The course will include two hours of material relevant to the work of duty solicitors and accredited representatives - thus meeting their minimum training requirements
