UNIFIED CONTRACT

A practical guide to compliance and performance

Working under the unified contract will present new challenges. Compliance with contract, a new monitoring regime and a developing pattern of audit and assessment are in place to catch the unwary. For many, thinking about 'franchise' requirements is a thing of distant memory - not least since it is probably some years since most firms last faced an on-site LSC audit.

The aim of this course is to provide criminal and civil legal aid practitioners with an up-to-the-moment guide to the performance requirements of delivering legal aid under the unified contract. It will deliver a comprehensive summary of all key areas of risk and offer a range of practical solutions to assist the hard-pressed practitioner.

This will include:

- Key contract requirements
- 'Franchising' under contract
- Performance indicators and distant monitoring
- File assessment procedures
- Costs and reporting issues
- Supervisory requirements
- Peer Review today
- Profits and standard fees
- Towards Best Value Tendering

If you feel you have lost track of the regulator requirements through the recent period of change or, quite understandably, had little time to devote to such issues, this is the course for you.
